WASHINGTON.

Lively Times in the Republican Caucus--The Contested Cases --Conkling Arises to a Question of Personal Privilege--Hon. D. W. Voorhees Sworn in Confirmations -- Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, November 12. — The speeches of Goode and Ellis on Gen. Hooker's amendment have produced quite a sensation.

The President sent for Congressman Ellis Saturday evening. They had quite a long conference, which, it is said, resulted in the modification, if not fracture, of Louisiana State.

A special to the Baltimore Gazette, regarding Saturday's Republican caucus, makes Senator Conkling utter a strong denunciation of the administration, and adds: "He was seconded by Senator Edmunds, much to the surprise of those present."

Dawes, Christiancy, Hoar and Booth were partly in support of the President, but were met with violent opposition from Hamlin, Burnside, Oglesby, Howe and others. Hamlin was especially outspoken as a 'stalwart.' The only resolution, according to this report adopted was,

Resolved, That in all cases where appointments of Democrats have been made in the South on the recommendation of Democrats that the same be not sustained by the members of this body where any objection exists on the part of Southern Republicans.

Hamlin introduced a resolution, that this caucus agree to vote for seating Kellogg, when Christiancy jumped up and left the caucus Hamlin finding the resolution would cause a split in the caucus withdrew it.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections appointed a committee of two to wait on contestants and see how the contestants would agree regarding range of testimony.

It is authoritatively denied that the Louisiana senatorial contest was considered in the Republican caucus Saturday.

HOUSE.—The army bill was resumed.

SENATE.—Mr. Conkling, of New York, arose to a personal explanation, and referred to the publication on Friday last in the New York Herald, purporting in some general sense to come from him. It did not profess to be the report literally of anything said by him, but professed to be the narrative of private conversations, and it disclaimed accuracy but as generally read, it seemed to have been accepted as something which had become to be known as an interview, he desired to state that for some months he had not held an interview for publication with any one, save in one instance, and then in regard to to the usefulness and services here of the dead Senator from Indiana. In all other instances he had declined. The Herald's statement contained some remarks which he had made in a causal conversation, at times and it contained other remarks which he never made at any time. It ascribes to him forms of expression quite indefinite, to say the least. Words like these, in the presence of the gratifying and great achievements of the Republicans of New York, he was in no mood to utter.

Hon. D. W. Voorhees was sworn in as Senator from Indiana, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. O. P. Merton.

Mr. Booth, of California, was appointed chairman of the Committee on Patents, in place of Wadleigh, of New Hampshire, recently appointed chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Davis, of Illinois, was excused from further service on the Committee on Pensions; and Mr. Saunders, of Nebraska, was excused from further service on the Committee on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard.

A number of bills were introduced and referred to appropriate committees. Among them are the following: By Mr. Windom, of Minnesota, to establish a department of commerce; by Mr. Matthews, of Ohio, for the enforcement of judgments and decrees in States other than those where rendered or made.

Mr. Maxey, of Texas, submitted a resolution instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the expediency of constructing defensive works on the Rio Grande frontier. Laid over for the present.

Senator McCreery expresses himself, in the lobby of the Senate, favorably to the confirmation of Harlan to the Supreme bench.

The President's private secretary was in the Senate this morning, but brought no nominations.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs are preparing a bill for distribution in the statement paid by Mexico on awards.

Voorhees's desk is covered with flowers.

General LaGrange, superintendent of the San Francisco mint, has resigned.

Maj. Roy P. Eaton succeeds Judge Spence, deceased, in the Post-office Department, as special examiner of star and steamboat mail routes.

Confirmations: Defrees, public printer; Marble, assistant Attorney General; Stevens, of Maine, minister to Sweden and Norwry; Brayton, collector of revenue for South Carolina; Kenneth Rayner, Solicitor of the Treasury; Morphis, marshal for the northern district of Mississippi; Hunt, marshal for the southern district of Mississippi; Crittenden, for marshal of Kentucky; Patterson, district attorney for southern Florida; Badger, district attorney for the eastern district of North Carolina; Warder, district attorney for the middle district of Tennessee; Hooper, postmaster at Opelika, Alabama.

Jones, of Florida, introduced a bill to revive and extend the provisions of an act approved June 8th, 1872, granting the right of way through the public lands to the Pensocola & Louisville Railroad Company, of Alabama. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

By Mr. Conover, a bill to provide for a survey of an inland water route and canal from the Mississippi river to the Atlantic ocean. Referred to the Committee on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard.

The House passed the army bill without a division. The amendment allowing four cavalry regiments to be recruited to 100 men for each company to be stationed in Texas, was agreed to. And amendment limiting staff officers to the rank and pay of their regular army grades, was rejected.

In the course of the discussion, Hewitt, of New York, charged the Secretary of War, General Sherman and the Adjutant General, with want of frankness and concealment of facts regarding enlistment.

Members on the Republican side replied to the charges, and defended the high reputation of those officials.

Afterwards a large number of bills were introduced and referred.

FRANCE.

An Apparent Crisis Approaching.

LONDON, November 12—A Reuter dispatch from Paris says: It is stated that when the Minister of Finance introduces the Budget a deputy of the Right will propose that the four principal directed taxes be voted upon immediately inieperdient of Budget. The Republicans are not expected to entertain this proposition. Other information is to the effect that a belief prevails that a refusal of the Chamber of Deputies to vote these four taxes will be followed by a request for a vote of dissolution in the Senate, and if that request is granted President MacMahon intends to dissolve the Chamber and submit the question of his resignation to the country by a sort of plebiscite The MacMahonites claim that the Senate will vote for dissolution by fifteen or twenty majority, but this is not generally believed. All late ministerial organs in the Orleanists and Constitutional interests now demand a republican ministry, including the Moniteur, Soleil, Soir and Constitutionel. No republicans attended President MacMahon's reception on Saturday.

TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

Russians Contracting the Circle about Plevna--Attempted Surprise by the Turks.

LONDON, November 12.—A Daily News correspondent from Daleny Dubrick, November 6th, says: In consequence of the evacuation of this place by the Turks the Russians have now contracted the circle of investment to thirty miles. The Russians have 120,000 men, sufficient to fill two continuous lines of trenches around the whole position. Five or six thousand cattle are visible in Osman Pasha's position, and other indications show it is probable that he can hold out thirty or forty days longer.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A Russian official dispatch dated Bogert, Nov. 11th, says the Turks last night attempted to surprise Gen. Skobeloff's position. The Russians were warned however and allowed the Turks to approach within one hundred paces when they received them with a heavy fire. The Turks retreated to an entrenched position and maintained a violent fire until two o'clock this morning.

Condition of the Pope of Rome --Arrangements for the final Scene.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A special to the Herald from Rome says: Gravest fears are entertained for the life of the Pope. A short time ago his physicians feeling anxious about the Pontiff's condition summoned some of the most eminent men of the medical profession in Italy, among others Vanzetti, professor of surgery at Padua for consultation. After the most careful examination the consulting physicians have given up all hopes of his recovery. His condition is such now that he may die at any moment and if he rallies the recovery will be only temporary. His lower limbs are paralyzed and he cannot live very long.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—It is reported here this afternoon that the Pope is dead. The report obtains credence in consequence of the unsatisfactory character of the latest reports of his condition.

NEW YORK, November 12.—A London dispatch says: "Dispatches received from Rome to-day state that the Holy Father passed a very restless night, and the gravest fears are entertained for his life From his fitful slumbers, during the night he always awakened in full possession of his faculties and was conscious of all going on around him despite his infeebled condition. He insists on receiving most of those who call upon him, and to many he gives instructions of a personal or ecclesiastic nature. Many of the most eminent physicians of Italy have been summoned to his bedside and give it as their opinion that he cannot recover, although they admit he may linger for many days, if not a week or more. So soon as the death of the Pontiff is announced the Cardinals will assemble in conclave and it is thought that this conclave will last not longer than one day, and that an Italian will be chosen as the successor of Pio Nono. The Italian government has already taken precaution to station a strong guard around all the approaches to the vatican to prevent any pillaging that might follow on the death of the Pope being made public. It is further announced that the temporary interment of the Pope will take place in St. Peters until his final resting place shall have been selected.

Henry M. Stanley Heard From.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Henry M. Stanley, the African Explorer and one hundred and twenty of his followers were brought to the Cape of Good Hope in her Majesty's store ship Industry which will also take them to Zanzibar.

The Mexican Borders.

During the debate on the Army Appropriation bill in the House Nov. 10, Mr. Phillips gave a racy description of the Mexicans on the Texas frontier. He said: Sir, the population of Mexico on that frontier is so debased that nothing but power can keep it in subjection or secure safety to our borders. In it we find a people who have not been and cannot be kept in subjection by the government of Mexico, weakened by political dissensions and paralyzed by imbecility. A population of mixed Indian and Spanish blood, a mixture which seems to have debased the original elements, it has neither the nobility of the Castilian nor the simple dignity of the Indian, and possesses all the vices of both and none of the virtues of either; a set of men who gamble for an occupation, are filthy, unwashed, unkempt, unregenerated; who wear ragged gaberdines, their uniform being a sombrero, a blanket, and a pair of spurs; who eat red-pepper pies and dark-colored bread; who are one day in the army, the next day robbers on the frontier, the next pronunciadores, (for a Mexican borderer when he wishes to steal anything pronounces for God and Liberty;) a set of men who curse the very soil on which they tread; a body of people so debased and loathsome that when they lie down to die, on the prairie even, the coyotes will not eat them.

SPECIAL ORDER,

The consideration of the endowment of Wake Forest College, being under consideration, Rev. J. B. Nash was introduced and said, though not a graduate of Wake Forest, he loved it with his whole heart for what it had done, and we as Baptists ought to do all in our power to endow it. He did not think going to college made educated men in its true sense, as the educated man was he who could think and speak his thoughts, and men who never went to college could do that. He did not think the main objects of the college was to educate preachers, but to educate laymen, for if the people were educated, the preachers would be compelled to be. He could appeal for Wake Forest, not as a North Carolinian and a patriot, but as a christian. As to the necessity of endowment, it was paramount, in order to open its doors to every boy in the land. He wanted to see the time when Wake Forest would be the best institution of its kind in the South. He did not think it one bit behind the University, save in that of the department of chemistry, and that was presided over by a Baptist. He thought it was the duty of the alumni of Wake Forest to endow it, and though not one of them would stand by them. One means to accomplish this was to talk about it, and let it be talked about here and there by sisters and brothers, though that was not enough to endow it. We must make it a matter of special and continued prayer. God was able if we would humble ourselves in faith before a rich throne of grace. If we would do this Wake Forest College would rise and bless the State and the world.

Rev. C. E. Taylor came to this Convention with an idea, and had not been able to get rid of it, and that was how were we to get the 450 Baptist churches in North Carolina, that had never done anything, to work. It seemed to him it could only be done by the education of the ministry. There was only about one-ninth of the preachers of the denominations here. Why was this? Because they were not interested in the work of the Convention. Some of these were the brightest stars in our firmament. Educated mind rules the world. What is educated mind? Education would not make a wise man out of a fool. It did not make a man proud. The more a man was educated the more he thought he did not know anything. Head knowledge would not take a man to Heaven. True education could not take the place of heart culture. He always felt the boys at Wake Forest were his younger brothers, and he and his colleagues always tried to send them out as Christians. The thing for us to do was to get these 450 churches to either say they were antimissionary or get them to go to work with us. We could have 40 young men at college if the brethren say we must have them. The Baptists of North Carolina now were worth more than ever before, and he was tired of hearing of our being poor since the war. We could endow Wake Forest between now and Christmas if we had a spirit of devotion in the work.

Rev. J. D. Hufham spoke at length on the importance of Wake Forest College to the Baptist denomination and to the State. Among other things he discussed the relation of the Baptists to the State University and of the university to the denominational colleges. He said in substance: The State needs the University. No other institution, none of the denominational colleges, can take its place. There is a large and influential class of the people who will not educate their sons at a denominational college. They can not be induced to do so. If we have no university of our own, these young men will go out of the State to be educated. Besides this, the University is needed to awaken and stimulate the general spirit of education in the State. It is a sad mistake to suppose that the university is a useless and expensive luxury. It is a necessity.

The Baptists—the leading men among them at least—have held this view. They grieved when the institution went down before the mad rage of party spirit. It was a Baptist who first through the public press called for its revival. The Baptists have sympathized with every movement looking to its revival and given it their influence and support.

In return, they demand that the University be made a University. They will not be content to have it merely a college, a rival of the denominational colleges, offering just the same advantages and no more, and yet overshadowing them by the prestige of a State institution. This they will not submit to without protest and without appeal to the people of the State. They are willing to wait. They know that the making of a University or indeed of any school worthy of the name, is a thing of time. It cannot be done in a day or a year. The Baptists are willing to wait, but they ask for an institution which shall be lifted above the sphere of rivalry with their own College by its more extended curiculum and its superior facilities and appliances. They will have no electioneering on the part of the University officials, whether Trustees or Faculty, to draw away the students from the denominational colleges.

As the State needs the University so she needs the denominational colleges. As the latter cannot do the work of the former, so the former can not do the work or take the place of the latter. This great denomination of ours, including within the sphere of its influence, nearly one half the population of the whole State can not be reached by the University Many families will educate their sons at a Baptist institution in the State if they can, out of it if they must. Of the remainder only a few families can be reached by the State institution. This work can be done only by the denominational college. Each of these institutions—State and denominational has its own sphere and its own work. The only rivalry that should exist between them, is the rivalry for superior excellence. Their intercourse and their bearing towards each other should be always courteous, respectful and dignified.

The Convention adjourned until Sunday night after the sermon.

SUNDAY.

At nine o'clock on Sunday morning a Sunday-school mass meeting was held, presided over by J. S. Allen, of the Sunday-school Board.

Five minute speeches being in order, addresses were delivered by Revs. A. D. Cohen, A. D. Blackwood, W. J. Fulford, N. B. Cobb, J. A. Stradley, S. M. Collis, C. W. Scarboro, Theo. Whitfield, and Capt. W. H. Kitchen, and W. H. Pace, each telling the benefits Sunday-schools had been in their sections, and how God had blessed their churches through their agency, giving incidents in their own personal history, which was highly interesting to the large congregation assembled.

At 11 o'clock Rev. W. M. Wingate preached the Missionary Sermon, taking as his subject "Prayer the need of the denomination in the foreign field," and preached one of the most powerful sermons it has been our pleasure to listen to. The vast audience, filling every available inch of space to its utmost capacity, gave most earnest attention throughout.

In the afternoon a mass meeting was held, in the interests of the Women's Missionary Society. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Hartwell, of China, and Rev. Dr. Pritchard.

Dr. Hartwell spoke of the condition of woman in China, and of her needs; how she was intellectually neglected and kept in abject ignorance, knowing nothing save to work, and that of the most menial kind. He spoke, how it was impossible for male missionaries to reach them in any way, as they were not allowed to visit them at their homes or to speak to them on the streets, and could only be approached by wives of the missionaries and other female missionaries. He told of some of the work women had accomplished among them, and asked the ladies to aid in this great work.

Dr. Pritchard spoke of the great blessing woman was to society, and of the influence she wielded in this country, and then made a strong and stirring appeal to the women of North Carolina to come to the aid of their sisters in China and other heathen lands. He then explained the workings of the Women's Mission Mite Society, and how they were organized.

At night, after a very impressive sermon by Rev. J. J. James, the convention adjourned.

North Carolina in Congress.

[From the Congressional Record, Nov. 9.]

Mr. Merrimon asked, and by unanimous consent obtained, leave to introduce a bill (S. No. 230) to authorize and enable the eastern band of the Cherokee Indians to institute and prosecute a suit in the Court of Claims against the Cherokee Nation; which was read twice by its title and referred to the Committee on Indian affairs.

By Mr. Robbins: A paper relating to the establishment of a post route between Rowan Mills and China Grove, North Carolina—to the Committee on the Post-Office and Post-Roads.

By Mr. Scales: Papers relating to the claim of the Pottawatomie Indians—to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

FROM THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD NOVEMBER 10.

Mr. Vance introduced the petition of N. Bowen, J. W. Williams, and others, in behalf of the trustees of the Judson Female College, Hendersonville, North Carolina—to the Committee on Education and Labor.

During the debate on the Army appropriation, Mr. Waddell said: I move to further amend by adding the amendment which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

From and after June 30, 1878, there shall be admitted to the Military Academy not more than one cadet from each State, to be appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the Governor of said State; and the supernumerary officers of the Army, graduates of the Military Academy, shall be assigned by the Secretary of War to such universities or colleges of the several states as the governors thereof shall designate, for service as instructors in military science.

Mr. Conger. I raise the point of order upon that amendment, that it is new legislation and not germane to the pending paragraph.

Mr. Waddell. It is in the line of retrenchment; is not that sufficient?

The Chairman. Not always; it must have some other qualities. The Chair sustains the point of order.

Dr. Giles--

I have been exceedingly successful in using your Liniment in my practice; particularly in cases of paralysis. You have worked wonders. I have seen those who have not been able to walk for years, recover the use of their limbs and one gentleman in particular, who had lost the entire use of one side, and had visited Europe and the Hot Springs in Arkansas, without benefit, after having your Liniment applied, was restored and able to resume his usual avocations. You have a great field before you, and may you go on and prosper, for you certainly have benefited mankind by your valuable discovery.

There is Danger Ahead

When those usually active little organs, the kidneys, are neglectful of their duties and grow sluggish. Fatty degeneration, Bright's disease, diabetes, and other dangerous maladies, are the result of neglect to remedy this inactivity by medicinal means. When the all important functions of the kidneys are imperfectly discharged, those organs need stimulating, and the best possible agent for that purpose—since it performs its office without exciting them—is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which in combination with its tonic and cathartic properties, possesses valuable qualities as a diuretic. Both kidneys and bladder are strengthened by it, and the vigor which it imparts to them, and the gentle but effectual impulse which it gives to their operations, is the best possible guaranty against their becoming diseased. The Bitters are invaluable in other respects as well as the above, since they remedy general debility, uterine troubles, chills and fever, dyspepsia, constipation, gout, rheumatism, and other ailments.

A Flying Four-Footer.

Somewhere down in the wilds of Jersey—If Jersey has any wilds these present Centennial days—one McDaniels dwells, in all the patriarchal comfort and dignity which attach to the English Lord of the Manor. He has a park, a stately mansion, groves of timber, and above all, the most famous racing stables in America. These royal establishments contain some of the finest and fastest horses in the world. Among them is Harry Bassett, a monarch of the turf, who some time ago met with an accident to one of his slender and priceless limbs. Without wasting a moment in doubtful experiments, Mr. McDaniels applied some of Giles' Liniment (oddide of Ammonia, and in a half a day the horse was as sound as the proverbial silver dollar. No wonder McDaniels tells Dr. Giles to send skeptics to interview himself and his horse in Jersey. Pescud, Lee & Co., Agents, Raleigh, N. C

STATE NEWS.

More corn in Burke than ever was raised before, says the Blue Ridge Blade.

Captain John B. Hussey, ex-editor of the Statesville Landmark, has been appointed Librarian of the Hall Library in Congress.

Blue Ridge Blade: We noticed a drove of sheep from Fraser and Wilson's farm on Toe river, pass through the streets on Wednesday, to be shipped north.

The Battleboro correspondent of the Roanoke News, says a young man was killed at Whitakers depot last Tuesday by falling from a wagon loaded with cotton. His name was Willie Bond.

Monroe Enquirer: Mr. John W. Preslar says that since the 4th of last May his wife has weighed and sold or packed away, besides what the family have used, 142 pounds of butter, made from the milk of two cows. The cows were fed once a day with a half gallon apiece of oat meal.

Wilmington Review: The Sampson county Agricultural Society will hold its annual fair this year, commencing December 12th, and continuing four days. The indications are very gratifying for this exhibition, and it is thought that Sampson will achieve a success no whit inferior to former years.

The Blue Ridge Blade in calling attention to an advertisement for wood to burn brick for the Western Insane Asylum, says: This large structure is now taking shape, and a good and pretty shape it is, too. The walls of the south wing are well up, and soon can be carried to the required hight. The material and workmanship are simply superb, and cost less than similar work anywhere in America.

Hendersonville Courier: On Friday morning, at 2 o'clock, the store house of R. W. Allen, Esq., near Johnson's bridge, in this county, was totally destroyed by fire. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. There had been no fire in the store for months, the night was a dark and rainy one, and the probabilities are that the building, which contained two thousand dollars worth of goods, was first "gutted" and then fired.

Hendersonville Courier: On Monday night the 29th of October, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, an earthquake was distinctly heard in this and the adjoining counties. The night was perfectly clear and the stars were shining brightly. The sound was like the roll of muttered thunder, and was followed by a jarring and shaking to such an extent as to cause even the dishes in the houses to rattle. The sound came from the direction of Bald Mountain.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Col. Myer Myers, British consul at Norfolk, died last Friday, aged 85.

Richmond Whig: John Dandridge, was found dead whilst at prayer by his bedside in his chamber at that place Wednesday. The coroner viewed the body and decided that death was produced by heart disease.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution remarks: "Let no one deceive himself by harboring the belief that Mr. Hendricks would accept a seat in the Senate that he is entitled to preside over. Neither Mr. Tilden nor Mr. Henricks can consistently fill any new office this side of March 4, 1881."

Petersburg Index-Appeal: An artillery battalion has been formed of the Richmond Howitzers, Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, Staunton Artillery and Petersburg Artillery, and Capt. Henry Carter, of the Howitzers, on recommendation of the officers of the various companies has been appointed Major by the Governor.

Among the men of distinction who will be in the next General Assembly of Virginia are the following: John W. Daniel, Thos. S. Bocock, R. A. Coghill, W. H. F. Lee, Marshal Hanger, Genereral Echols, James Barbour, Gen. Taliaferro, Dr. Moffett, Bradley T. Johnson, W. D. Quesenbury, Jos. R. Anderson, Wm. Wirt Henry.

Mr. McCullough recently played "Virginius" in Macon, Ga. The play over, the whole audience remained in their seats, expecting some more. It became necessary for the stage manager to go before the curtain and explain that "Virginius" being dead, "Virginia" dead and the "Decemvir" dead, nothing more could be done that evening. The audience grumbled a good deal, but went away.

At the Virginia Synod now in session, Dr. Pryor gave many amusing and instructive incidents in the life of the celebrated colored preacher of Nottoway, "Uncle Jack," who, among other wise sayings, said in reference to strutting members in his meeting, that he had always noticed in passing through the woods that dry leaves made the most noise. Speaking of atheists, Uncle Jack said he had noticed in the woods that when hogs ate acorns they never looked up to see where they came from.

INTERFERENCE WITH THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

Ed. Ray is an ex-revenue official. He is a man of infamous character; one of the most notorious of the scoundrels who, in the guise of Federal officials, have depredated on the defenceless people of the West; defenceless, because the courts of the land afford them no protection. This Ed. Ray, about a year ago, murdered an old man named Snider, a peaceful and law-abiding citizen of Ashe county. He was indicted for the crime in the State court, but the case was removed to Judge Dick's court, where it is likely to rest. He is shielded from the penalty of his crime by the technicalities of the law, or by the intellectual opaqueness of the Judge of the Federal court: it is a matter of small consequence which. It is sufficient to know that Ray swore he did the deed "under color of office;" and the blood of the old man Snider cries in vain from the earth for retribution. This same offender was arraigned at the late term of Wilkes Superior Court for an assault with intent to commit a rape on a girl twelve years old, in Wautauga county. Was he tried? Oh, no! He had been a revenue officer. The laws of North Carolina he could trample with impunity under his feet; there is no law of the United States to punish him. Quick to avail himself of recent constructions of the law, the defendant filed an affidavit and moved that the proceedings be suspended in the State Court, until he could make application for a writ of certiorari to remove the case to the Federal Court, upon the ground that he was a revenue officer at the time the offence was committed. The motion was allowed by the Court. Solicitor Cowles we are told immediately appealed to the Supreme Court. It was the only course left open to him. We honor him for doing all in his power to bring this arch-offender to justice.

This Ray rape case presents the question of the conflict of jurisdiction between the State and Federal courts, in the matter of revenue officers, in a bold and striking light. When a criminal prosecution is commenced in any court of a State against "any officer appointed under or acting by authority of any revenue law of the United States, or against any person acting under or by authority of any such officer, on account of any act done under color of his office or of any such law, or on account of any right, title or authority claimed by such officer or other person under any such law, * * * the said prosecution may at any time before the trial or final hearing thereof, be removed for trial into the Circuit Court next to be holden in the district where the same is pending, upon the petition of such defendant to said court." The petition must be verified by affidavit, and the matters set forth in it must be certified to be true by some lawyer. Such is the law, briefly stated, as laid down in Title XIII, chapter 7, section 643, of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

It is plain that the defendant must, in order to obtain an order for removal, swear that the act with which he was charged was committed "under color of office." It is possible that a Revenue officer in the legitimate performance of his duties may be compelled to kill some resisting violator of the revenue law; but it is not possible that an attempt to commit rape can under any circumstances, be considered as having been done "under color of office," nor is it possible for such an offence to be committed "on account of any right, title or authority claimed by such officer." It is an absolute absurdity to suppose that the attempt to rape a poor little girl by a Revenue officer can in any conceivable way be connected with such individual's discharge of duty as a government officer. The most violent construction of the Federal Statute does not admit of such a case being brought within its operation. We cannot believe that the framers of this law had in contemplation the protection of rapists, to say nothing of murderers. The manifest intention of the law is to allow the removal of cases wherein the acts charged were done by revenue officers in their official capacity, and in the performance of duty; and not by them as individuals. Hence the requirement that the defendant shall swear that he was acting "under color of his office."

Ray could not have been acting "under color of his office," when he committed the alleged attempt to rape the little Watauga girl. Rape is no part of a revenue official's duty. If he so swears, he is guilty of perjury, and the grand jury should take hold of him.

The evil, of which this Ray rape case is a specimen, is a great one. The speediest remedy, if not the only remedy, must be found in a repeal or modification of the Federal law. We are pleased to see that Mr. Robbins has introduced into Congress the following bill in relation to this matter, which should pass:

A bill to prevent interference with the Administration of Justice in Criminal Causes in the Courts of the several States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that all those provisions of chapter seven, title thirteen, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, which authorize the removal of criminal prosecutions commenced in any State Court to a Circuit Court of the United States or which permit the Circuit Courts of the United States, or the Judges thereof, in any manner or by any process, to hinder or obstruct the course of proceedings in criminal prosecutions in any State Court, be and the same are here by repealed.

THE SILVER BILL.

An analysis of the vote by which the Silver bill passed the House, according to the calculation of the Charleston News and Courier, shows that ninety-four members were absent from their seats. These were mainly from States where elections were held last Tuesday. The conspicuous anti-silver votes from the South were those of A. H. Stephens of Georgia, Gibson and Leonard of Louisiana, and Schleicher of Texas. The votes by States were as follows.

	Yeas.	Nays.
Maine	0	4
New Hampshire	1	2
Vermont	0	3
Massachusetts	0	5
Rhode Island	0	2
New York	3	6
New Jersey	1	2

California	3	1
Minnesota	3	0
Kansas	2	0
West Virginia	2	0
Nevada	1	0
Total	163	34

There is nothing now to do except to await the action of the Senate. The bill will be referred to the Finance Committee, who are opposed to it, and the bill will not soon be reported, unless a majority of the Senate undertake to order the discharge of the committee. When it comes before the senate there will be a long debate, and behind the Senate is a possible veto.

KENTUCKY is in a bad way. Recently Judge O. D. McManama delivered a charge to the grand jury of Carroll Criminal Court, in which he used the following language:

"The blood of the slain cries for justice everywhere. Human life in Kentucky is not worth the snappings of a man's finger. The finger ends of many men who go unpunished are dripping with the gore of their victims. Acres of grass grow on the graves of murdered men in my district."

The Courier-Journal confesses that this is no exaggeration of the situation. It adds. "We have certainly arrived at the point when promiscuous shooting, lynching and assassination will rule the State, or the constituted authorities of the State must place the iron heel of justice on the lawless.

The cause of this deplorable condition of affairs lies in the cowardice of the juries. "Just so long as juries," remarks the Courier-Journal, "by repeated acquittals, give the barbarians of this State carte blanche to shoot and stab and lynch, just so long will the murderer stalk with brazen brow through Kentucky, and laugh to scorn the paraphernalia of the law."

Where juries are fearless and impartial in the performance of their sworn duties, striking the high criminal as well as the low, the powerful as well as the weak, the bold and daring as well as the cowardly and sneaking—lawlessness cannot prevail. Faint-hearted juries are despicable.

THE Star of Zion, an organ of the colored race, published in Newbern, goes for the selfish and corrupt politicians who misled them, in the following vigorous manner:

"Let the men of our race, who are best competent for educational leaders, be called to the front. Let liceing politicians, men who drink liquors, use profane language, and demons at home with their wives, and among their children, be forced to take back seats, no matter who they are, nor what they have been, nor where they have been. Such men are greater stumbling blocks to education than the real illiterate man, and we shall never march on the high road to progress, until these bad habited, immoral men are hurled headlong from the front seats. And the quicker, the better for our race."

In the above we believe we see expressed the prevailing sentiment of the masses of negroes in this State. It is encouraging to discover such evidences of good sense among the colored people.

CANDIDATES for judicial honors in the 11th district are beginning to show up. The most prominent candidates for the judgeship are, according to the Hendersonville Courier, Hon. A. T. Davidson, Capt. C. M. McLoud, and J. C. L. Gudger, Esq. It is confidently asserted that one of these gentlemen will certainly receive the nomination. For solicitorial honors, it is stated, there will be quite a spirited contest between G. S. Furguson, of Waynesville, and K. Elias, of Franklin. Both are gentlemen of decided ability and popularity. Mr. Furguson is at present Senator from his district. Our friends of the 11th district cannot go wrong in any selections which they may make from the above list.

THE Columbia Fair begins to-day. Governor Vance will attend, by invitation of Governor Hampton. The occasion will be a most note-worthy one. It will be the first grand gathering of the people of South Carolina since the redemption of the State from Republican rule. The exhibition promises to be one of unusual magnitude and splendor.

THE Republicans held a caucus in Washington on Saturday. It split wide open on the "Southern policy" question. The details of the meeting appear in our telegraphic column.

A Ball Invaded by a Praying Band.

The Omaha Bee of the 5th inst. says: "The North Star Society, composed of Scandinavians, gave a ball at Turner Hall Saturday evening. All went well until a party of persons, men and women, who have recently become very religious, entered the hall, after purchasing their tickets, and began to pray. One of the party, a minister, who has recently been converting numerous Scandinavians and who organized this praying band, commenced to make a speech urging the dancers to become converted. The committee of arrangements came up and requested him to step out. The minister then went into the hall with his companions and there knelt down and prayed for 10 minutes, creating considerable excitement and curiosity. Finally, the minister was forcibly ejected from the building, but he continued the prayer-meeting on the sidewalk for quite a long time afterward. The dance was resumed inside, and no more attention was paid to the praying band. Some of the members of the band were formerly hard drinking men."

An Open Letter to the Public.

NEW YORK, October 1, 1877

I have devoted twenty years of patient study to the Liver and its relations to the human body, in search of a remedy which would restore it, when diseased, to its normal condition. The result of that labor has been the production of

TUTTT'S LIVER PILLS.

Their popularity has become so extended and the demand so great as to induce unscrupulous parties to counterfeit them, thereby ROBBING ME OF THE reward, and the afflicted of their virtues.

To Caution the Public and protect them from vile impositions, have adopted a new label, which bears my trade-mark and notice of its entry in the office of the Librarian of Congress, also my signature, thus;

Dr. H. Tutt M. D.

☞ TO COUNTERFEIT THIS IS FORGERY. ☜

Before purchasing, examine the label closely.

THE GENUINE TUTT'S PILLS

exert a peculiar influence on the system. Their action is prompt, and their good effects are felt in a few hours. A quarter of a century of the study of the Liver has demonstrated that it exerts a greater influence over the system than any other organ of the body, and when diseased the entire organism is deranged. It is especially for the healing of this vital organ that I have spent so many years of toil, and having found the remedy, which has proved the greatest boon ever furnished the afflicted. Shall these be deprived of its benefits, and a vile imitation imposed upon them?

Let the honest people of America see to it that they are not defrauded. Scrutinize the label closely, see that it bears all the marks above mentioned, and buy the medicine only from respectable dealers. It can be found everywhere. Very respectfully,

W. H. TUTT.

DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY ..... NOVEMBER 13, 1877

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the best weekly paper published in North Carolina. It is only ONE DOLLAR per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

A Texas Idyl.

Not a drum was heard, nor a funeral note,
As his corpse to the ditskirts they hurried;
Not a ranger discharged his farewell shot
O'er the grave where the stranger was buried.

They buried him darkly at dead of night,
And without any pomp or pageant;
As they shovelled him in they said, "All right,
He was only a lightning-rod agent."

NEWS NOTES.

Mr. Spurgeon calls the people who go to church from compulsion, as they might do to escape a shower of rain, "umbrella Christians."

Hon. A. H. Stuart reports Secretary Evarts as saying that the University of Virginia is "the best school on the face of the earth," and that he regrets that he had not known it better before he sent his sons to Cambridge and Yale."

Philadelphia Times: General McClellan makes a splendid candidate for a party. In Cumberland county he has a majority of ten, when the Republican candidate for Senator has nearly three hundred. A man like this will be valuable to have on hand in 1880.

Conkling is a jolly cuss. When asked by a fellow Senator in Washington whether he was going to Indiana to attend Morton's funeral he answered: "No, I'm going to New York to attend my own." He went to New York and he didn't miss the funeral either.

General Sherman's official salary, it is stated, amounts to about $18,600 a year, inclusive of the usual commutation for supplies. He lives, at present, at the Ebbitt House, in Washington. It is said to enjoy Washington gayeties greatly, and to feel aggrieved when there is not—to use his own words—"some sort of a fandango" every evening."

The nineteenth senatorial district of New York State is composed of the county of Oneida, in which is Senator Conkling's home. This district gave Mr. Sawyer, republican, a majority of 555 for Senator in 1875, and gave President Hayes a majority of 1,175 last year. On Tuesday it elected Mr. A. T. Goodwin, democrat, State Senator over Mr. S. Gridley, the republican candidate, by a majority which is said to be about 1,000.

Senator Morton wrote in 1865 to Rev. J. H. Losill: "I am no infidel. I was educated by pious grandparents to a professed belief in Christianity, and taught to reverence holy things; and though I may not in many things have led a Christian life, yet I have never fallen into disbelief, nor have I been the immoral man some would have the world to believe. The Christian gentleman is the noblest and loveliest character on earth, for which I entertain the highest respect and love. I recognize the hand of Providence in all the affairs of men, and believe there is a divine economy which regulates the lives and conduct of nations."

Life-Saving Stations on our Coast--Lighthouses, &c.

[Wilmington Star.]

A letter from our Representative in Congress, Hon. A. M. Waddell, addressed to the President of the Chamber of Commerce, conveys the important information that he has secured the establishment of two additional life-saving stations on the North Carolina coast, one of which, at his own request will be placed on Bald Head, either at the Cape or in some better position on the Island. He is also giving his attention to the placing of lighthouses at the Bar and upon the river, and to providing a sufficient number of buoys.

The establishment of a life-saving station at Bald Head is a matter of great importance to the commercial interests of our port, as everything tending to lessen the danger of vessels approaching the coast, and the loss of life consequent upon the disasters which will occasionally occur, cannot prove otherwise than beneficial, and the thanks of the commercial community are due to our Representative for his successful efforts in this direction. It is to be hoped that he may be equally fortunate in securing the establishment of the lighthouses referred to, the necessity for which has long been felt by our commercial marine.

The Dismal-Swamp Canal.

[Washington correspondence Richmond Dispatch.]

Representative Yeates, of North Carolina, will introduce a bill next week asking an appropriation of $700,000 to widen and deepen the Dismal-Swamp canal from the Elizabeth river at Norfolk to its southern terminus, at Albemarle sound. Mr. Yeates's bill will propose to widen and deepen the old Dismal-Swamp canal sufficiently to make it a first-class ship-canal throughout its entire length. A project is also on foot looking to the digging of another canal to connect Albemarle sound with the harbor at Wilmington, N. C. This would, of course, give Wilmington and the whole country of which it is the outlet direct inland water communication with the markets of Washington and Baltimore.

Congressman Yeates also wants an appropriation for ten light-houses on the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal.

Cotton Factory in Mecklenburg.

[Charlotte Observer of the 11th inst.]

Messrs. E. C. Grier & Son, of Providence township, are erecting a cotton factory near Providence church. They will use Danforth machinery and will operate the "Clement Attachment," which has been so highly approved wherever introduced. The factory will be run by steam, the engine being of twelve horse power. This new enterprise will be commenced with one card—one hundred spindles—and it is expected to soon increase the number to two. The immediate capacity of the factory will be one hundred and fifty pounds of yarn per day. The building will be completed Tuesday evening and a part of the machinery is expected to-morrow.

This, when put in running order, will be the only cotton factory in Mecklenburg county. If this experiment proves a success, other citizens in the Southern part of Mecklenburg will establish similar enterprises. This factory is to cost about $5,000, and its projectors are satisfied that it will prove a paying institution.

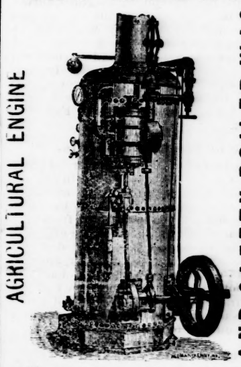
AGRICULTURAL ENGINE



AND SAFETY BOILER WAS AWARDED THE

This Premium at Roanoke & Tar River Agricultural Society, 1875. The Gold Medal, over all other Competitors, at the North Carolina State Fair, in 1876.

It is the most perfect and economical in use. The Boiler is of new design, being vertical yet all the heating surface is entirely covered with water, thus preventing the fire from destroying the tubes as is the case, in a few years, in all upright tubular boilers in which the fire passes through the tubes above the water line, soon destroying the exposed end of the tubes causing them to leak.

——Nearly every one of our State exchanges have a standing paragraph in their local columns asking subscribers to bring in "that wood" they promised in payment of subscriptions.

For the last few days there have been a considerable number of fruit trees brought into the city for delivery to various parties to fill previous orders. There appears to be a great revival in the spirit of fruit growing throughout the country.

——We desire to call attention to the advertisement of the Home Insurance Company, of New York. This splendid fire insurance company has Gen. Joseph E. Johnston at the head of its Southern department, who has appointed Messrs. Cameron, Hay & Co. to represent the company in Raleigh and its vicinity.

——The Governor yesterday made requisition on the Governor of Tennessee for one Calvin Morgan, a convict who was serving out a sentence at hard labor for the State on a charge of larceny, and who escaped some time since and made his way to Jonesboro, Tenn., where he has been arrested and confined.

——We have before us a copy of the minutes of the forty-eighth session of the Catawba River Baptist Association, held with the North Catawba Church, Caldwell county, October 11th, 12th and 13th, 1877. ——The "Busy Bee Band" an organization of the "little ones" of the Presbyterian Church under the direction of Miss Bettie Penick, President, will have a Bazar in the Presbyterian Sunday School on Friday night next. From what we learn, the public, who are cordially invited, may expect a treat of rare pleasure on the occasion.

——Gov. Vance yesterday visited the colored department of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institute and spent two or three hours in inspecting the house and grounds, seeing the exercises of the pupils, both of the deaf and dumb and the blind classes, and expressed himself highly gratified at the conduct and management of the institution.

——The Raleigh Minstrels and Cornet Band will leave this morning for Fayetteville, where they are booked for a series of entertainments during the Fair; the first of which will be given to-night. The people of Fayetteville and all others who patronize their entertainments may confidently expect to hear good music and witness an excellent performance, and they will not be disappointed.

An Old Book.

A correspondent of the Roanoke News has found a book printed at the office of the "North Carolina Journal," Halifax, for Richard Poindexter and Jesse Read, in 1806. The book is "an Abridgement of an Exposition of the Prophet Isaiah, by John Gill, D. D." We believe there is still an older book than that in Halifax county, printed on the old Ramage press of the North Carolina Journal. It is a history of the Kehukee Association, and is, if we mistake not, now in the possession of Rev. Lemuel Bennett, residing near old Rocky Swamp Church, in the neighborhood of Heathsville. We may be mistaken, as it has been many years since the writer of this paragraph saw the book, but we are under the impression that the above statement in regard to it correct.

Still Harping.

A certain radical newspaper continues to harp on the quotation in the NEWS on announcing the death of Senator Morton. The quotation was from the book of Job, "The Lord gave, the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." This language has always been understood as expressive of resignation under great trial, and no one is better prepared to appreciate the appropriateness of the quotation than the editor of the sheet alluded to, who was once pleased in circumstances to realize the necessity of "resignation under great trial," though the "resignation" was made to the Governor and the trrial was in the Legislature, sitting as a court of impeachment.

Wake County Criminal Court--November Term, 1877.

MONDAY, November 12th.

At 10 o'clock His Honor, Judge Strong took his seat upon the Bench, the Solicitor, Mr. Devereux, and Clerk, Mr. Gales, and Sheriff Nowell, being in their respective places. The crier, Mr. Furney King made the usual proclamation and the court was declared open for business.

The Grand Jurors for the term were drawn as follows: W. A. Bledsoe, foreman, and Jesse Duke, Gaston Jones, A. B. Upchurch, J. J. Betts, Fagan Perry, A. J. Scarborough, Willis Parrish, Annanias Jordan, Samuel Shaw, J. S. Jones, W. H. Smith, D. B. Buffalo, W. A. Partin, W. C. Powell, E. P. Powell, B. A. Fort and John Pollard.

A. C. Dunn, S. J. Abernathy and Joel Evans were excused from serving as jurors, and their places filled with the names of J. L. Watson, J. M. Carver and R. L. Pettiford.

The Grand Jury being sworn, His Honor proceeded to deliver his charge to them, which was plain comprehensive and exhaustive. He brought clearly before them the various offences against the laws and peace of society of which it was their duty to take cognizance, some of which are not generally included in Judicial charges. We intended to make a full synopsis of the charge but are compelled to forbear for want of time and space.

The Grand Jury having retired the following cases on the docket were taken up and disposed of as indicated:

Several cases of the State against merchants for non-payment of the "privilege tax," were submitted and judgment rendered of one penny and the payment of the tax and costs of suit.

State and Claudia Barker, vs. Henry B Barkor, peace warrant, dismissed at the cost of defendant.

State vs. J. W. Buck, false pretense, (Buck non est), nol. pros. with leave.

State vs. Thomas W. Harris, larceny, nol. pros. with leave.

State vs. Jim Whitaker, T. R. Purnell and J. B. Neathery, sci. fa. Judgment according to sci. fa.

State vs. Henderson Smith, assault and battery, nol. pros. with leave.

State vs. H. D. Berry, affray, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. W. A. Rhodes, misdemeanor, nol. pros.

State and Sarah V. Jernigan vs. Calvin B. Jernigan, peace warrant, judgment requiring defendant to enter into bond of $500 to keep the peace toward Sarah V. Jernigan and all the good people of the State, and to appear at the next term of Wake county criminal court, and to pay the accrued costs.

And then the Court adjourned to 9:30 this morning.

The number of cases on the docket is 75, with about 60 bills to go before the grand jury, including the Mooneyham murder case.

The Fire Yesterday.

The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon was caused by the burning of a small store house at the terminus of Johnston street where it touches the R. & G. Railroad near the round house. The house belonged to Messrs. Rand & Wyatt, and was occupied by Wrenn & Wilson as a family grocery store. The contents were all saved, but the house was totally destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown and uncertain. It apparently broke out in the upper room which was approached by steps outside, and the door to which was not fastened.

The young man Wrenn who attended the store had closed his house and gone up town when the fire broke out.

The fire companies were all promptly on hand. The Rescue got a stream on from the tank at the depot, but not in time to save the building, but she showed very plainly what she could do in the suppression of fires if water could always be had. The Hook and Ladder company did good work, and the old reliable Buckets showed their usual promptness and were instrumental in preventing the fire spreading to the adjacent buildings. The Victors were also promptly on hand but could get no water until it was too late to do any good. The Railroad Bucket company were also present and did effective work in helping to save the dwellings Mr. Rufus and Mr. Daniel Horton, one on the same side of the street, the other just opposite. The Hook and Ladders got a grip on the building with their hook and ropes to which the yard engine at the depot was attached by means of a hawser, with a view to pulling it down, but the hawser broke and the effort failed.

There was no insurance on the building, and right here we would suggest that this is a bad time to allow property to go uninsured, when fires, many or most which are evidently of incendiary origin, are of such frequent occurrence.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor had up Hinton James for being drunk and disorderly again, and gave him 48 hours in the guard house.

Nick Alford for assault upon his wife, was fined $5.00 and costs.

John Morgan and Henrietta Morgan were up for an affray; Morgan was discharged and Henrietta was fined $1.00 and costs.

John Morgan was also up for disorderly conduct and for resisting a police officer, for which he was sent on to court.

Three young gentlemen were charged with an assault and battery, whose cases were continued and will come up to-day.

Seriously Hurt.

Yesterday when the alarm of fire was sounded, policeman Goodwin, who was in the northeastern part of the city near the old Lovejoy Academy, hailed a passing dray that was going in the direction of the fire, with a view of riding on it. The dray had a bundle of bedding on it, and as Mr. Goodwin got up and before being steadily seated, the drayman drove off and, turning a corner at a good lively gait, Mr. Goodwin was thrown to the ground, falling on his shoulder and back and receiving a very severe hurt, indeed, was for a time insensible. Chief of Police Lee, who was passing in sight, came to his assistance and helped him to reach home, and last night he was suffering considerable pain, but hoped to be up and on duty again soon.

A Narrow Escape.

The excursion train on its way to Durham Sunday nearly ran over a man who was lying upon the track in a state of beastly intoxication. He was dragged off the track just in time to save his life. If he had been run over and killed, who would have been to blame—the railroad, the man himself, or the man who sold him the whiskey on Sunday to get drunk on.

Personal.

Mrs. Mason, relict of the late Dr. W. S. Mason, returned to the city yesterday after a sojourn of a year and a half among her children and other relatives in Virginia.

Dr. L. S. Burkhead left yesterday for Selma to assist the pastor of the M. E. Church of that place in a protracted meeting.

C. M. Cook, Esq., of Louisburg is registered at Yarbrough House.

Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

OFFICE GRAND SECRETARY.
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 7th, 1877.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina will commence its Ninety-First Annual Communication at its hall, in this city, on Tuesday, 4th of December next, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

Return tickets can be obtained by officers and representatives on application, over the railroads, &c., at the rates mentioned—six cents per mile for the round trip over the following:

Atlantic and North Carolina; Seaboard and Roanoke; Raleigh and Gaston; Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line; Wilmington and Weldon; Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta; Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta; Richmond and Danville, North Carolina Division; Northwestern North Carolina; Piedmont.

For one first class fare over the Western North Carolina; Western (from Fayetteville) Carolina Central, Charlotte & Atlanta Air-Line, and Dismal Swamp Canal, representatives traveling over Carolina Central must exhibit their credentials to agents when they apply for tickets.

Round trip tickets will be issued on the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad at seven cents per mile. It is specially suggested that return tickets over all the routes mentioned are necessary to prevent the payment of full fare, except the Atlanta & Charlotte Air-Line, over which the Grand Secretary's certificate will be issued.

D. W. BAIN,
Grand Secretary.

A Shooting Affair.

We learn that, on Sunday, William Upchurch, living in White Oak township, shot two men—Ham. Council badly in the arm, and a man by the name of Riggsby in the abdomen. The shooting was done with a double-barreled shot gun. Upchurch was to have an examination yesterday. We have heard no particulars further than the above, except unreliable rumors which we forbear to give.

Since the above was put in type, Upchurch has been committed to jail by Justice Rufus Barbee in default of bail in $2,000 the investigation showing that Upchurch made an assault on Council with the intent to commit murder. The shooting the man Riggsby, it appears, was unintentional. After he fired on Council he attempted to turn the gun to club him with it and the second barrel went off, the charge taking effect on Riggsby. We could get no information as to the cause of the difficulty.

Seriously Hurt.

Col. L. L. Polk, going on a visit to his family in Anson last Thursday night, by way of the Raleigh and Augusta Airline Railroad, was very seriously though not dangerously hurt by an accident beyond Sandford. It seems the locomotive had been detached from the train for some purpose, and ran off ahead; the breaks were not put on hard enough to stop the train and it ran against the locomotive, the shock throwing Col. Polk against the stove near which he was sitting, by which he received a severe cut on the forehead, split his left eye-lid and burned one cheek and one hand very severely. He has not laid himself up, however, but has returned to the city and will probably be at the Fayetteville Fair this week.

Sale of Bank Judgments.

Yesterday a large number of judgments against various parties in favor of the old Bank of the State of North Carolina were sold in front of the court house door, together with the franchises of that institution, sold as the effects of the Bank, which has been declared bankrupt. The whole number, amounting to many thousands of dollars sold for not much more than one hundred dollars. To-day a large number of notes and accounts that have never been sued on will be sold.

Warren County Taxes.

Isham H. Bennett, Register for Warren county, has sent to the Auditor's office his abstract of taxes for the year, by which is reported 315,573 acres of land valued at $1,156,242. 124 town lots, valued at $126,944; other taxables $839,910, making total taxable property in the county, $2,123,092, on which the tax is, for general State purposes, $3,115 85; special tax, $3,18 .64; for schools, $4,836.98; county tax for all purposes, $13,644.47; total tax paid by the county, State and country, $24,741.94.

Justice C. D. Upchurch's Court.

S. J. Morrell and J. T. Nuger were arrested last night under warrant by Deputy Sheriff Bryant and policeman Samuel Betts for unlawfully hawking and peddling goods without first having obtained State, county and city license as provided in chapter 156, section 31, laws of North Carolina. The defendants came into court, waived examination and paid the required license tax, whereupon the Justice dismissed the warrant on payment of costs.
